5. On August 07, 2024, the Advisory Group received from the Verkhovna Rada Committee on Legal Policy the documents of lawyer Vladyslav Ivashchenko for participation in the competition for the position of a judge of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine (letter No. ДІЕ -697/24-vkh of August 07, 2024).

9. As of the day of the interview, the Advisory Group had doubts about the Candidate's compliance with the criterion of high moral qualities, namely, such indicators of the integrity component as "honesty," "diligence", "adherence to ethical standards and demonstration of impeccable behavior in professional and personal life." as well as the component "legality of sources of property origin", "compliance of the candidate's or his/her family members' standard of living with the declared income", "compliance of the candidate's lifestyle with his/her status", in particular, regarding possible underestimation of the value of the land plot owned by his/her wife, and regarding incomplete information in the candidate's integrity declaration.

10. At the same time, most of the doubts, including the possible understatement of the value of the land plot owned by the Candidate's wife, were refuted based on the Candidate's answers to the written questions of the Advisory Panel and the questions of the Advisory Panel during the interview, analysis of the Candidate's documents, individually and in their entirety, and other information received by the Advisory Panel during the evaluation of the Candidate.

11. In addition, with regard to the circumstances of incomplete information in the Candidate's integrity declaration, the Advisory Panel takes into account that, pursuant to part 2, Article 2 of the Methodology, in assessing compliance with high moral qualities criterion, the Advisory Group may take into consideration the gravity or severity, and the totality of the circumstances, and the willfulness of any integrity incident, and, with respect to minor incidents, whether there has been a sufficient passage of time without further recurrences. While determining the gravity, the Advisory Group takes into account all circumstances, including but not limited to: whether the incident was a singular case; whether the incident caused no or only insignificant damage to private or public interests (including public trust); whether the incident would be perceived by an objective observer as an attitude of disrespect for the social order arising from disregard for rules and regulations.

12. The Advisory Group, guided by part 2, Article 2 of the Methodology, taking into account the seriousness, gravity, and totality of circumstances identified during the assessment of the Candidate, concluded that he is compliant with the criterion of high moral qualities.
